PRINCESS SALM-SALM COMES TO GET AID FOR SICK SOLDIERS.

Khevenhuller were passengers aboard the North German Lloyd steamship lahn, which arrived in port this morn ing from Bremen and Southampton.

Princess Salm-Salm, who lives in Carisruhe, Germany, has taken a nurse's part in some of the great wars in the past half century. She is on her way to Chicago to organize a hospital corps for the Transvaai. How large a force she WANT will take with her is not known, but she has announced that she will nurse the English and Boers without discrimina-

Said the Princess to an Evening World reporter as she stood on the pier awaiting the appearance of Congressman Cousins, who was to meet her.

"I am here to raise money enough equip an ambulance for the Boers, and I hope The Evening World will aid me in the project. I was speaking to a gentleman in Rome regarding my purpose, though I had no definite idea of how the money was to be raised. He advised me to appeal to The World, which had all along deprecated the war and was ambulance could be fitted out for $30,000, and, taking in consideration the pro-Boer feeling here, that should not be difficult to raise."

The Princess was Miss Agnes Joy. daughter of Col. Joy, of Vermont, and a member of the Joy family of Revolutionary fame. She was margled to Prince Salm-Salm in Washington when she was a girl of a xteen.

Baby William Booth-Tucker, infant son of Commander Booth-Tucker, is now a regularly enlisted soldler in the Salva tion Army of America, and represents the third generation of his family in the holy cause, his illustrious grandsire, Gen, William Booth, of London, having started the movement agains; crime and poverty and for the salvation of souls. The new recruit's father, Booth-Tuck er, is called "General" by the great Sal vation Army of America. of which he is the head

It was at the great prayer services at the Fourteenth street barracks last evening, in celebration of the twentleth anniversary of the invasion of America by the Salvation Army that the little fellow was dedicated to the cause by his dear little mother, Mrs. Booth-Tucker. Cadet William Booth-Tucker was born last November. He was dressed all in white last evening, and a broad white satin ribbon crossing his long, laced dress bore the words in letters of blood "Glory to God."

The recruit was a bit sleepy, but he didn't whimper at being kept awake.
